WELCOME

Welcome to this schedule created to provide you with details of the SEIB Search for a Star and Racehorse to Riding Horse competitions.

SEIB are proud to have been running these competitions for over two decades and we make every effort to ensure all competitors have a good day and gain something from the experience.

We will be there to guide and support all those on their way to the Championships but our judges are happy to offer advice on the day to help everyone improve and learn from the experience. So many times competitors don't qualify at their first attempt but by taking the time to listen to our judges and taking on-board the advice given often they come back at a later date and qualify for the big occasion. In the past this has taken a couple qualifiers for some, but for others it has taken several years. However nothing compares to the excitement of qualifying. The more work that has gone into the attempt the more satisfying the accomplishment. So don't get depressed and just give up - ask for help!

SEIB take all cheating very seriously and we believe that the rules of Search for a Star are very clear. If you are not eligible it is very unlikely that we will not hear about it and we WILL TAKE ACTION and will disqualify any competitor that has broken the rules.

ABOUT SEIB

SEIB Insurance Brokers have been providing equestrian insurance for over five decades and are still leading the way...

- Barry Fehler founded SEIB as a 17-year-old in 1963 when the concept of horse insurance was virtually non-existent. He created his own insurance for one of his very successful show horses, found a company to underwrite it, and everything really began from there.
- SEIB has been responsible for introducing many aspects of today's equestrian and equine cover now taken for granted - including high-value veterinary cover with a ceiling on each incident rather than an annual total; reasonable cost horsebox insurance; cover for the older horse and pony; loss of use and much more.
- The company, often through its "hands on" experience, provides a complete range of insurance for the equestrian enthusiast
- SEIB has put a great deal back into the horse world through sponsorship and supporting equestrian events and activities
- SEIB provide liability insurance for many equine charities and cover for freelance Instructors
- SEIB is well known for their insurance for riding schools and livery yards offering a wide range of cover for different situations and liability

SEIB SEARCH FOR A STAR HORSE OF THE YEAR SHOW QUALIFIERS

Show Hunters, Show Cobs including Maxi, Riding Horse and Hacks, Working Horse, Working Pony, Traditional Gypsy Cob (all colours)

Search for a Star is designed to give amateur riders and owners an opportunity to appear at the prestigious Horse of the Year Show and to identify top class horses and ponies which otherwise may not be given the opportunity to compete at this level.

Although only for amateurs the series is run by professionals and the standards imposed are identical to those applied to professionals. One fundamental difference is that at HOYS the judges will use radio microphones to give their thoughts and explain decisions. They will not publicly criticise riders or horses.

If you ever wanted to know what makes you a star and your horse or pony stand out from the crowd, come along and learn from the best. Our team will be on-site on the Saturday before the qualifiers on the Sunday at Stoneleigh and Perth. The judges and trainers will share their knowledge and experience helping you to get the best result each time you compete. We all know things can go wrong on the day but it always helps to be fully prepared.

Some questions that we will answer:

Do you know if you are in the right class? Is there anything you can do to make your horse or pony stand out? How do you teach your horse or pony to stand up for the judge and trot up properly? Do you want to learn more about tack and turn- out? Do you need help with your horse or pony's way of going? Should you clip or not? What does a super plait look like and how do you do it? Should you pull or plait a tail and what is the best length for it to be? What should you wear?

If you want help and answers to any of these questions or others why not book your place at the SEIB Search for a Star Weekender. Everyone will have time to learn with their horse and there will be the opportunity to watch everyone else too, you can learn so much that way.

Those competing on the Sunday will have priority but if there are spaces we will offer them to others nearer the time and you can always come and watch. To go on the waiting list for the masterclass with your horse or pony (only necessary if you are not competing on the Sunday at that venue) please email competitions@seib.co.uk

SEIB SEARCH FOR A STAR RDA CHAMPIONSHIP

Open to any horse and independent rider associated to an RDA Group.

INTRODUCTION

The Search for a Star RDA Showing Championship is open to any rider associated to an RDA Group who can walk and trot independently. Entry is subject to the Groups approval for each horse and rider. Stewards will be on hand to explain what to do but all competitors will enter the arena together and line up. Riders will then be asked to give a short show that can include canter but this is not necessary, just a good display showing the best of the horse and rider. Competitors will not be asked to trot together.

Any type of horse is able to compete and the class will be judged 30% conformation, 30% turnout and 40% suitability, manners and way of going, so giving a good show within the horses capability will be the way to succeed.

After giving a show the horse and rider will be asked to come out of line and stand for the conformation judge to have a look at the animal.

If numbers of entries are high the class will be split into sections with the top competitors returning for a final judging.

Riders should be neatly turned out, clean and tidy but tack and saddlery suitable for the rider not the show ring will be encouraged.

WHAT TO WEAR

Here are some indications on what to wear, but don't worry you won't be penalised at the qualifiers for the wrong jacket although you are likely to be given advice for the future.

Don't go and spend lots of money on new clothes, it is amazing what you can borrow, but do make sure you have your own, correctly fitting hat and that it is up to current UK standards. All competitors must wear a hard hat with a safety harness and this is required in every class.

REMEMBER, GROOMS AND IN-HAND COMPETITORS SHOULD BE APPROPRIATELY DRESSED AND WEAR A HARD HAT.

HUNTERS/RIDING HORSES

Riders should wear tweed jacket with collar & tie, though a coloured stock is acceptable. Plain leather gloves & a show cane, with boots or half chaps. Breeches should be plain, preferably beige.

WORKING HORSE/PONY

As for hunters but the wrong colour jacket will not be penalised.

HACKS

Male riders wear as above, but lady riders may wear navy or black jackets. If you are unsure whether your horse is a hack or riding horse wear what you think is appropriate, the judges will give you some advice for the future.

COBS

As for hunters.

TRADITIONAL GYPSY COBS

Hacking/tweed show jacket, shirt and tie, gloves, breeches or jodhpurs, in one of the following colours: cream, beige, canary (white or dark coloured are not acceptable), hair net, show cane/whip (MUST NOT exceed 76cms/30inches in length), jodhpur boots for juniors and long black boots for adults or skull cap complying to the new hat rules.

RACEHORSES

The rider should wear the appropriate clothing for their type of horse for example, a hunter would wear tweed and a hack a show jacket but no competitor will be penalised for the wrong jacket.

GENERAL

Horses and ponies should be plaited except for cobs who should be hogged, except for traditional types and mountains and moorlands. Coloured browbands are acceptable for hack/riding horse. It is also considered correct dress for ADULT riders to wear spurs or dummy spurs, but this is your choice no riders under 15 years of age may wear spurs.

SIMPLE SNAFFLE, SIMPLE PELHAM OR SIMPLE DOUBLE BRIDLES, EXCESSIVE LEVER ACTION IS ACTIVELY DISCOURAGED

Working horse/pony riders should remember that their horse must remain in the same tack throughout the class.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

If you are lucky enough to qualify for one of the Championships, adult riders should wear white or cream stock, men may wear a red hunting coat with top boots if appropriate for their type of horse. It is amazing what you can borrow, please don't think you have to go out and purchase lots of new clothing for one championship.

PLEASE NOTE

Grooms and In-Hand competitors should be neat, appropriately turned out AND MUST wear a hard hat.
