Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. Cover for Death, Permanent Incapacity and Veterinary Fees are limited to claims arising from injury only in the first 14 days of your policy. We will NOT pay any claims that result from an illness that started in the first 14 days of cover.
2. We will NOT pay any claims that result from an illness if the insured animal is covered on the Veteran Plan.
3. Your policy is subject to any special conditions or exclusions we place.
4. You will be invited to renew your policy each year, however this does not mean that your policy is automatically renewed.
5. The policy terms, conditions, premiums and excesses may change each year.
6. This Policy of Insurance and any endorsements applying to the policy form. Sets out the conditions of the contract of Insurance between You and Us. We would therefore recommend that this is kept in a safe place.

OUR GUARANTEE

Your certificate of insurance shows the sections of cover and sums insured that are in force for the insured animal.

If, after consideration, you are not happy, you have 14 days after the date you receive your policy documentation to cancel your policy and receive a full refund of any money paid less a reasonable admin fee to cover our costs.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURES IN RESPECT OF THIS POLICY

DATA PROTECTION

The information We collect about You is processed for the purpose of the underwriting and management of Your Insurance and administering claims. We may pass this information to loss adjusters and Insurers for these purposes. This may involve the transference of Your information to countries which do not have data protection laws.

Some of the information We collect about You may be classified as 'sensitive' – that is information about criminal convictions or alleged criminal convictions. Data protection laws impose specific conditions in relation to sensitive information, including in some circumstances the need to obtain Your explicit consent before We process the information.

You have previously consented to such processing and transfer of information (without which We would be unable to consider offering cover).

However, You may have the right to access to, and correction of, information that We hold about You. Please contact Our compliance Officer at Plantation Place, 4th Floor, 30 Fenchurch Street, London, EC3M 3AD if You would like to exercise these rights.

LEGAL JURISDICTION OF THIS POLICY

Under European Law, the parties to a contract are free to choose the applicable to the Insurance contract. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary prior to acceptance of the application, this Insurance is subject to English Law under the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

CUSTOMERS SERVICES AND COMPLAINTS

JUST EQUESTRIAN HORSE & PONY POLICY

We will provide cover in the sections shown on your certificate of insurance during the period of cover, providing the correct premium is paid.

SECTION 1 (A)

DEATH OF THE ANIMAL - STANDARD

We will pay the market value of the insured animal (or sum insured if less), as a result of the insured animal's:

- a) Death, arising from an accident, illness or disease sustained or contracted during the period of insurance.
- b) Euthanasia, arising from an accident, illness or disease, sustained or contracted during the period of insurance, providing we have given prior written consent.
- c) Immediate euthanasia on humane grounds arising from an accident, illness or disease, sustained or contracted during the period of insurance. A veterinary surgeon must confirm that this was necessary to relieve incurable and excessive pain and no other option of treatment was available.
- d) Death or euthanasia, with our prior written consent, or immediate euthanasia on humane grounds, arising directly out of foaling and from no other cause whatsoever during the period of insurance. For immediate euthanasia, a veterinary surgeon must confirm that this was necessary to relieve incurable and excessive pain and no other option of treatment was available.

Subject to the terms, conditions and exceptions of this policy.

Limit of Liability

We will not pay more than:

- a) the sum insured shown on the certificate of insurance for the insured animal, or
- b) the market value of the insured animal immediately prior to the accident being sustained or the illness or disease being contracted, whichever is less.

Extension to this section

Providing we have agreed to pay a claim for the death of the insured animal, where applicable we will also pay up to GBP150 in respect of irrecoverable loss of entry fees paid in advance to show or event organisers, caused by the death of the Insured Animal.

Exceptions to this section

We will not cover any:

- a) Loss resulting from or arising out of:
 - i) destruction due to compliance of the requirements of any Statute or any Order of the Privy Council, a Government Department or Local Authority,
 - ii) castration without our written consent. An additional premium will be charged where consent is granted for castration to be carried out,
 - iii) any other surgical operation without our written consent unless in an emergency to save the life of an insured animal. An additional premium may be charged where consent is granted for an operation to be carried out,
 - iv) unfitness or incapacity to fulfil the functions or duties for which the insured animal is kept.
- b) Any costs incurred for the destruction of the insured animal or disposal of it's body.
- c) Any loss which results from a vice or behavioural problem unless veterinary evidence is provided to establish that the insured animal is suffering from an accident, illness or disease
- d) Any loss which results from an illness or disease contracted in the first 14 days of the policy starting.
- e) Any loss which results from an accident sustained, or an illness or disease contracted, before the insured animal's cover started.
- f) Any loss which happens more than 12 months after the date the accident was sustained or the illness or disease was contracted.

SECTION 1 (B) VETERAN PLAN

DEATH OF THE ANIMAL - VETERAN PLAN

We will pay the market value of the insured animal (or sum insured if less), as a result of the insured animal's:

- a) Death, arising from an injury caused by accidental, external and visible means, sustained during the period of insurance,
- b) Euthanasia, arising from an injury caused by accidental, external and visible means, sustained during the period of insurance, providing we have given prior written consent.
- c) Immediate euthanasia on humane grounds arising from an injury caused by accidental external and visible means, sustained during the period of insurance. A veterinary surgeon must confirm that this was necessary to relieve incurable and excessive pain and no other option of treatment was necessary.
Subject to the terms, conditions and exceptions of this policy.

Limit of Liability

We will not pay more than:

- a) the sum insured shown on the certificate of insurance for the insured animal, or
- b) the market value of the insured animal immediately prior to the accident being sustained, whichever is less.

Extension to this section

Providing we have agreed to pay a claim for the death of the insured animal, where applicable we will also pay up to GBP150 in respect of irrecoverable loss of entry fees paid in advance to show or event organisers, caused by the death of the insured animal.

Exceptions to this section

We will not cover any:

- a) Loss resulting from or arising out of:
 - i) destruction due to compliance of the requirements of any Statute or any Order of the Privy Council a Government Department or Local Authority,
 - ii) castration without our written consent.. An additional premium will be charged where consent is granted for castration to be carried out,
 - iii) any other surgical operation without our written consent unless in an emergency to save the life of the insured animal An additional premium may be charged where consent is granted for an operation to be carried out,
 - iv) unfitnes or incapacity to fulfil the functions or duties for which the insured animal is kept.
- b) Any costs incurred for the destruction of the insured animal or disposal of it's body.
- c) Any loss which results from a vice or behavioural problem unless veterinary evidence is provided to establish that the insured animal is suffering from an injury.
- d) Any loss which results from an illness or disease.
- e) Any loss which results from an accident sustained before the insured animal's cover started.
- f) Any loss which happens more than 12 months after the date the accident was sustained.

SECTION 2A

THEFT OR STRAYING

We will cover the insured animal where the animal is not recovered within 30 days following:

- a) Theft, or
- b) Straying

Extensions to this section

- a) Providing we have agreed to pay a claim for theft or straying, we will also pay up to GBP150 for irrecoverable loss of entry fees paid in advance to show or event organisers, caused by the loss of the insured animal.
- b) Subject to our prior written consent, we will also pay GBP150 towards the cost of advertising or other expenditure for each theft or straying.

Limit of Liability

We will not pay more than:

- a) the sum insured shown on the certificate of insurance for the insured animal, or
- b) the market value of the insured animal immediately prior to the loss or theft, whichever is less.

Exception to this section

We will not cover any loss purposefully caused by you or any member of your household or any employee.

SECTION 3

PERMANENT INCAPACITY

If the insured animal sustains injury or contracts any illness during the period of insurance, which results in the animal being permanently incapable of fulfilling the functions or duties for which it is kept and insured, we will pay up to the maximum amount specified in the certificate of insurance.

Extensions

- a) If treatment to the insured animal is in progress at the expiry date of the period of insurance, cover under this section will extend up to 12 months from the date of the accident, or the first manifestation of the illness or disease. This is providing the claim is notified to us before the renewal date and the illness or injury occurred before the expiry of the current period of insurance.
- b) Providing we have agreed to pay a claim for permanent incapacity, we will also pay up to GBP150 in respect of irrecoverable loss of entry fees paid in advance to show or event organisers, caused by the permanent incapacity.

Conditions applicable to this section

- a) The permanent incapacity must be the direct result of an accident, illness or disease, sustained or contracted during the period of this insurance and you must advise us in accordance with Claims Conditions, No 1, in this policy document.
- b) Both, your and our veterinary surgeons must agree that the insured animal is permanently incapable of fulfilling the functions or duties for which it is kept and insured. If there is a disagreement between the veterinary surgeons over the incapacity of the insured animal, the case will be referred to an independent veterinary surgeon. This veterinary surgeon will be mutually agreed upon by both sides and will act as arbitrator. The fees for the independent veterinary surgeon will be divided equally between you and us and their decision is final and binding.
- c) Where the section covers 100% of the sum insured (or market value), the residual value of the insured animal shall be taken into account in the settlement of any claim under this section.
- d) Following acceptance of a claim under this section, prior to settlement you will have the insured animal marked in accordance with our requirements and provide us with the appropriate certification showing the marking has been carried out.

Exceptions to this section

We will not cover:

- a) Castration or any other surgical operation, without our written consent.
- b) Disfigurement following accidental injury, illness or disease which renders the insured animal unsuitable for showing because of its appearance.
- c) Abnormalities of reproductive organs in the case of animals kept for breeding, other than those caused by accidental injury, illness or disease occurring during the period of insurance.
- d) Incapacity that results from a vice or behavioural problem unless veterinary evidence is provided to establish that the insured animal is suffering from an accident, illness or disease
- e) The excess specified in the certificate of insurance.
- f) Permanent incapacity resulting from illness or disease which first manifest clinical signs within 14 days of start of the policy.
- g) Permanent incapacity resulting from an accident which was sustained, or an illness or disease which first manifest clinical signs before your policy started.
- h) Any animal insured on the Veteran Plan or any animal aged 16 years or more at inception. Permanent Incapacity will be automatically removed from the policy at the renewal following the insured animal's 16th birthday.

VETERINARY SURGEON'S FEES

If the insured animal sustains an injury or contracts an illness or disease during the period of cover, we will reimburse the veterinary surgeon's fees (which are not alternative, complementary or rehabilitation treatment) up to the maximum amount specified in the certificate of insurance. The maximum amount applies for each unrelated injury or illness or set of clinical signs reported as one incident.

Extension to this section

If you incur fees for alternative, complementary or rehabilitation treatment recommended by your veterinary surgeon for the insured animal due to an accident, illness or disease arising during the period of insurance, we will reimburse these fees up to the maximum amount specified for complementary treatment in the certificate of insurance.

Definition

For the purposes of this policy the following treatments are considered to be alternative, complementary or rehabilitation treatments when carried out by a veterinary surgeon, a farrier or a therapist who holds a nationally recognised qualification in their subject:- Acupuncture, Chiropractic Manipulation, Electrotherapy, Herbal Medicine, Homeopathy, Hydrotherapy, Laser Treatment, Magnetic Treatment, Nutraceuticals, Osteopathy, Physiotherapy and Remedial Farriery.

Special Conditions applicable to this section

- a) You must advise us when the treatment starts and subsequently submit all dated veterinary surgeon's, therapist's and farrier's receipts to us to substantiate the claim. Such receipts must include details of the treatment provided.
- b) Any referral for a second veterinary opinion or referral to a veterinary hospital or centre of veterinary excellence must be approved by us prior to the referral.
- c) Diagnosis by Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Scintigraphy, Computerised (Axial) Tomography, Thermography and Myelography must be approved by us prior to commencement of the procedure.
- d) Any alternative, complementary or rehabilitation treatment recommended by your veterinary surgeon must be approved by us prior to the start of treatment.
- e) If treatment is in progress at the expiry date of the period of insurance we will continue to reimburse the fees within the limits specified, for a period of 12 months from the date of the accident or the first manifestation of the illness or disease, providing the claim was notified to us and accepted by us before the expiry or renewal date.
- f) Once we have agreed to pay the claim, we may at our option pay the veterinary surgeon or other authorised provider of treatment, unless you specify otherwise in writing.

Exceptions to this section

We will not cover:

- a) The excess specified in the certificate of insurance for each and every loss.
- b) Any costs resulting from or arising out of castration or any other surgical operation without our written consent unless in an emergency to save the life of the insured animal.
- c) Livery, husbandry and transportation costs unless we give prior agreement.
- d) The cost of any treatment that results from a vice or behavioural problem unless veterinary evidence is provided to establish that the insured animal is suffering from an accidental injury, illness or disease.
- e) The cost of vaccinations, any other preventative treatments and removing wolf teeth.
- f) Any cost associated with pregnancy or parturition unless certified by a veterinary surgeon as necessary to save the life of the insured animal.
- g) Veterinary fees resulting from illness or disease which first manifest clinical signs within 14 days of the start of the policy.
- h) Veterinary fees resulting from an accident which was sustained, or an illness or disease which first manifested before your policy started.
- i) Any costs incurred for the destruction of the insured animal or disposal of it's body.
- j) The cost of experimental, non-customary or unproven treatment.

Veteran Plan – Special exceptions

We will not cover:

- a) The cost of any treatment unless to treat accidental, bodily injury caused by accidental, external and visible means.
- b) The cost of any treatment for an illness or disease which does not result from a bodily injury.

SECTION 5

SADDLES AND BRIDLES AND OTHER TACK

In the event of theft, accidental loss or damage to saddles, bridles or other tack, we will pay:

- a) The replacement value of the property, or
- b) The costs to repair the property.

Conditions applicable to this section

- a) We will not pay more than the sum insured shown in the certificate of insurance during any one period of insurance.
- b) We will not pay more than GBP500 for any individual item unless such item is specified in the certificate of insurance and the specified item's original purchase receipt is submitted to us
- c) Repayment shall not exceed such proportion of the loss or damage as the sum insured bears to the value of all the property at the time of the loss or damage
- d) Any claim under this section for horse rugs or blankets will be subject to a depreciation at 33% per annum of the original price.

Definition

Property: In this section, property is any saddle, bridle, harness and other riding tack normally attached to the insured animal, for the purpose of riding, driving leading or lungeing or while the horse is at grass. Replacement value: In this section, replacement value is the price generally paid for new property of the same brand, make and type as the property that has been stolen, lost or damaged.

Exceptions to this section

We will not cover:

- a) In the event of accidental loss or damage the first GBP100 or 10% of the amount of each and every loss, whichever is the greater.
- b) In the event of theft:
 - i) the first GBP250 or 50% of the amount of each and every loss, whichever is the greater, if no visible or violent force was used to get in or out of a locked building, or
 - ii) the first GBP100 or 10% of the amount of each and every loss whichever is the greater, if visible and violent force was used to get in or out of a locked building.
- c) Loss or damage in respect of wear and tear, depreciation, moth, vermin mould, rust, or any process of cleaning, repairing, restoring, or renovation, the action of light or atmospheric conditions or any other progressive cause.
- d) Clothing and personal effects.
- e) Property not kept in a locked building when not in use.

SECTION 6

LIABILITY

Not applicable

SECTION 7

PERSONAL ACCIDENT AND DENTAL TREATMENT

We agree to compensation, as set out in the Schedule of Benefits, for you and any other person riding or driving the insured animal with your permission, if you or the person sustains accidental bodily injury during the period of insurance whilst:

- a) Riding (including mounting or dismounting), lungeing and leading the insured animal,
- b) driving (including mounting or dismounting) a vehicle drawn by the insured animal, or
- c) riding as a passenger (including mounting or dismounting) in a vehicle drawn by the insured animal.

- d) Any injury caused by or resulting from, accidents occurring whilst the insured animal is engaged in racing of any kind.

SECTION 8

HORSEBOX TRAILER DAMAGE

1 Theft accidental loss or damage

Authority to Repair the Trailer

We will cover:

- a) Theft, accidental loss or damage happening during the period of insurance to the horsebox/trailer specified in the certificate of insurance. Payment may be made at our option either for the cost of repair, reinstatement or replacement, or by cash for the amount of the theft, accidental loss or damage, agreed between you and us. The amount will not exceed the reasonable market value at the time of the theft, accidental loss or damage, or the sum insured (which ever is less). We may authorise the repair of the horsebox/trailer provided a detailed estimate of the cost is sent to us immediately. We reserve the right to seek alternative estimates.
- b) Reasonable costs incurred for protection and removal of the horsebox/trailer to the nearest repairers and the subsequent cost of re-delivery to you after repair, if, as a result of the accidental loss or damage, the horsebox/trailer is disabled.

Exceptions to this section

We will not cover:

- a) Depreciation, wear and tear, mechanical or electrical breakdown or damage to tyres by application of brakes or by punctures, cuts or bursts.
- b) In the event of:
 - i) loss or damage by theft, the first GBP150 for each and every claim, or
 - ii) all other loss or damage, the first GBP50 for each and every claim.
- c) Accidental loss or damage arising where the horsebox/trailer is being used for any trade, business or profession or for hire or reward.
- d) Accidental loss or damage which results from your deliberate act or omission, which you could reasonably have expected, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the act or omission.
- e) Loss of the horsebox/trailer by theft whilst left unattended, unless at the time of the loss it is protected by a proprietary anti-theft device which has been specifically manufactured and sold for the purpose of preventing theft.

Note: A padlock and chain is not deemed to be sufficient protection

SECTION 9

HORSE DRAWN VEHICLES

1 Theft accidental loss or damage

We will pay for:

- a) Theft, accidental loss or damage happening during the period of insurance to any horse-drawn vehicle named in the certificate of insurance. Payment may be made either for the cost of repair, reinstatement or replacement, or by cash for the amount of the theft, accidental loss or damage, agreed between you and us. The amount will not exceed the reasonable market value at the time of the theft, accidental loss or damage, or the sum insured (which ever is less).
- b) Reasonable costs incurred for protection and removal of the horse-drawn vehicle to the nearest repairers and the subsequent cost of re-delivery to you after repair, if, as a result of the theft, accidental loss or damage, the horse-drawn vehicle is disabled.

Exceptions to this section

We will not cover:

- a) Depreciation, wear and tear, mechanical breakdown or damage to tyres by application of brakes or by punctures, cuts or bursts.
- b) In the event of:
 - i) loss or damage by theft, the first GBP150 for each and every claim, or
 - ii) all other loss or damage, the first GBP50 for each and every claim.
- c) Theft, accidental loss or damage arising where the horse-drawn vehicle is being used for any trade, business or profession or for hire or reward, or racing or any other activity where speed is of the essence.
- d) Theft, accidental loss or damage which results from your deliberate act or omission, which you could have reasonably expected, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the act or omission.

SECTION 10

Section 10A

Alternative Stabling

In the event of the stable at the premises where the Insured Animal is kept as set out in the proposal form or by endorsement to this policy being destroyed or damaged by fire, flood or storm so as to render it uninhabitable We will reimburse the Insured up to £50 per week for alternative stabling. The maximum sum payable under this section shall be £1,000 in respect of any one loss or during any one period of insurance.

Exception to this section

Any claim under this section which is not substantiated by receipts from a recognised livery or riding establishment showing the dates of stabling and the charge made

Section 10B

Hospital Fees

In the event of the Insured being admitted to hospital for illness or injury for any period exceeding 4 days We will reimburse the Insured for up to £50 per week for alternative stabling. The maximum sum payable under this section shall be £1,000 in respect of any one loss or during any one period of insurance

Exceptions to this section

- a) any claim under this section which is not substantiated by receipts from a recognised livery or riding establishment showing the dates of stabling and the charge made
- b) the Insured being admitted to hospital for illness or injury which first occurred OR showed symptoms prior to the start date of this policy
- c) the Insured's pregnancy or giving birth
- d) the Insured being admitted to hospital for alcohol or drug abuse or following an attempted suicide
- e) the Insured's nursing home care or non-hospitalised convalescence
- f) situations where suitable alternative arrangements could have been made by leaving the Insured Animal in the care of a relative or friend

SECTION 11

Disposal Fees

Where a claim has been accepted under section 1 of the policy We will reimburse costs incurred in connection with disposal fees and euthanasia charges up to a maximum amount of £175

Exception to this section

We will not cover any claim under this section which is not substantiated by receipts showing the costs involved.

SECTION 12

FOALING RISKS

We will pay you GBP500 in the event of the insured animal:

- a) Failing to produce a single live foal within the period of insurance, or
- b) Having produced a live foal within the period of insurance, that foal failing to survive 30 days from the date of birth, or
- c) Producing a foal permanently malformed to such an extent that in the opinion of both your veterinary surgeon and our veterinary surgeon, destruction is warranted for humane reasons.

Conditions applicable to this section

- a) Service of the insured animal must be carried out in accordance with regulations or codes of practice laid down by the Department of the Ministry of Agriculture and the Horse Race Betting Levy Board of Breed Association covering the breeding of horses.
- b) You must obtain from a veterinary surgeon and provide:
 - i) a positive single foetus scan at 18/30 days after the last service date, and
 - ii) a positive single foetus scan at 40/45 days after the last service date, or
 - iii) a report following a manual examination confirming there is no evidence of twins, or
 - iv) if manual rupture is performed prior to 30 days after last service date, a single foetus scan at 60/100 days after the last service date.
- c) In the event of the insured animal being found not in foal within the first 90 days after the last service date, you must immediately provide a positive mare immunological pregnancy (MIP) test. In the absence of this, cover under this section will be declared void and the additional premium returned in full.
- d) In the event of the insured animal being found not in foal after 90 days after the last service date you will provide a veterinary surgeons report certifying:
 - i) the existence of a recently aborted foetus and evidence that the insured animal has recently aborted, or
 - ii) the delivery of a dead foal, or
 - iii) the subsequent death during the period of insurance of a live born foal within 30 days from birth, or
 - iv) a post mortem examination of the insured animal revealing the existence of an unborn foal.
- e) The insured animal must not be due to foal within 60 days of policy inception or within 60 days of inception of this section, if added by endorsement.

Extension to this section

If the insured mare is in foal at the expiry date of the period of insurance cover under this section will extend up to 12 months from the last service date.

Exception to this section

We will not cover any costs associated with multiple pregnancy. We will not cover any costs for veterinary treatment.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

This policy, certificate of insurance and endorsements must be read together as one contract and unless specially stated to the contrary, any word or expression to which a specific meaning has been given will have the specific meaning, wherever it appears.

1. Definitions which apply to all sections of the policy

You/ your: The person named as the policyholder on the certificate of insurance.

CLAIMS CONDITIONS

1. Your actions

In any event including any accident, illness or disease of the insured animal which could result in a claim under this policy, you must:

- a) Give us immediate notice in writing.
- b) Give immediate notice to the police for any:
 - i) loss or damage by theft or any attempted theft,
 - ii) loss or damage by malicious person.
- c) Make no admission of liability or offer promise or payment without our written consent.
- d) Inform us immediately of any impending prosecution, inquest or fatal inquiry or civil proceedings and immediately send us every relevant document.
- e) Provide us with, at your expense:
 - i) a veterinary surgeon's report at the onset of any treatment and regular update reports where treatment continues beyond a period of 4 weeks,
 - iii) any other documents or proof as we may reasonably require for investigating or verifying the claim. On the death of any insured animal we will require a report from a veterinary surgeon confirming the cause of death (by post mortem examination if necessary).
- f) Provide us with, at your expense, a claim, in writing with detailed particulars and proof, as may be reasonably required and, if requested, a statutory declaration of the truth of the claim and any matters connected to the claim within:
 - i) 30 days of the event, or
 - ii) the further time period if we allow and it is confirmed by us in writing.

OUR RIGHTS

2 Control of Claims

We are entitled to:

- a) If the property insured is lost or damaged, we may take and keep possession of the property insured and deal with the salvage in a reasonable manner. In doing this, we do not diminish our right to rely on any conditions of this policy.
- b) At our discretion, take over and conduct, in your name, the defence or settlement of any claim. We will take proceedings at our own expense and for our own benefit but in your name to recover compensation or secure indemnity from any third party for any event insured by this policy. You must give us all the information and assistance we required.
- c) To any property for the loss of which a claim is paid hereunder and you shall execute all such assignments and assurances of such property' as may be reasonably required but you shall not be entitled to abandon any property to us.
- d) To pay to you the maximum sum payable under sections 6 and 8B in respect of any event or any lesser sum for which the claim or claims arising from such event can be settled and we shall not be under any further liability in respect of that event except for the payment of costs and expenses of litigation incurred prior to such payment
- e) In the event of the death of the insured animal any residual amount received following the disposal of the body at your expense and at the best monetary terms available.
- f) Appoint our own veterinary surgeon to examine the insured animal and to advise on treatment. If we appoint our veterinary surgeon and they do not agree with your veterinary surgeon, the situation will be resolved by an independent veterinary expert who will be jointly appointed by you and us. The fee for the independent veterinary expert will be divided equally between you and us and their decision will be final and binding.
- g) At our discretion, request any person insured by Section 7 to undergo a medical examination at our expense.
- h) In the case of the death of any person insured by Section 7, a post mortem examination must be carried out, this will be at our expense.

3 Fraudulent Claims

If any claim on this policy is found to be fraudulent or if you, or anyone acting on your behalf, have used any fraudulent means or devices to obtain any benefit under this policy or if any loss or damage be occasioned by your wilful act or with your connivance all benefit under this policy shall be forfeited

4 Other Insurances

If at the time of any loss, damage or event there is any other insurance under which you are entitled to an indemnity, we will only pay our proportion of the claim.

5 Arbitration

If any difference arises regarding the amount to be paid under this policy, where liability has been admitted by us. the difference will be referred to an Arbitrator. The Arbitrator will be appointed by the parties in accordance with the Statutory provisions. Where any difference is referred for arbitration, the making of any Award will be condition precedent to any right of action against us.
